These life-threatening events have life-altering impacts on an individual's physical, social and emotional wellness. By offering U.S. military veterans the care and support they need at no cost to them, we will provide the kind of quality and standardized care that is currently unavailable to this population. We are committed to providing the best and most comprehensive heart disease care for our patients. We are excited to be a part of the care our military heroes receive at the VMCI's. These men and women were blessed with the ability to serve their country, and we are blessed to be a part of their journey. The VMCI's are proud to be home to the first cardiology clinic in the country dedicated to serving U.S. military veterans.

Role of CYP2C19 polymorphism in the pharmacokinetics of omeprazole. CYP2C19 polymorphism might influence the pharmacokinetics of omeprazole. A reduced-function CYP2C19 allele is associated with higher gastric acidity and the occurrence of mucosal damage after a single dose of the proton pump inhibitor. To assess whether the pharmacokinetics of omeprazole
